A Bold Step.

To overcome the well-grounded and reasonable objections of the more intelligent to the use of secret, medicinal compounds, Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., some time ago, decided to make a bold departure from the usual course pursued by the makers of put-up medicines for domestic use, and so has published broadcast and openly to the whole world, a full and complete list of all the ingredients entering into the composition of his widely celebrated medicines. Thus he has taken his numerous patrons and patients into his full confidence. Thus too he has removed his medicines from among secret nostrums of doubtful merits, and made them remedies of known composition.

By this bold step Dr. Pierce has shown that his formulas are of such excellence that he is not afraid to subject them to the public scrutiny.

Not only does the wrapper of every bottle of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, the famous medicine for weak stomachs, liver or biliousness and all catarrhal diseases wherever located, have printed upon it, in plain English, a full and complete list of all the ingredients composing it, but a small book has been compiled from numerous standard medical works of all the different schools of practice, containing very numerous extracts from the writings of leading practitioners of medicine, endorsing the strongest possible terms, each and every ingredient contained in Dr. Pierce's medicines. One of these little books will be mailed free to any one sending address on postal card or by letter to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y., and requesting the same. From this little book it will be learned that Dr. Pierce's medicines contain no alcohol, narcotics, mineral acids or other poisonous or injurious agents, and that they are made from native medicinal roots of great value; also that some of the most valuable ingredients contained in Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription for weak, nervous, over-worked, "run-down," nervous and debilitated women, were employed 1,000 years ago, by the Indians for similar ailments affecting their women. In fact, one of the most valuable medicinal plants entering into the composition of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, was known to the Indians of the West of a few of our most valuable native medicinal plants. As made up by improved and exact processes, the "Favorite Prescription" is a most efficient remedy for regulating all the woman's functions, correcting displacements, as prolapsus, anteversion and retroversion, overcoming painful periods, relieving the nerves and bringing about a perfect state of health. Send for this book to-day.

Catarrh To prove unquestionably, and beyond any doubt, that Catarrh of the nose and throat can be cured, I am furnishing patients through druggists, small free Trial Boxes of Dr. Shoop's Catarrh Cure. I do this because I am so certain that Dr. Shoop's Catarrh Cure will bring actual substantial relief. Nothing certainly, is so convincing as a physical test of any article of real merit. Just this article must possess true merit, else the test will condemn, rather than advance it. Dr. Shoop's Catarrh Cure is a pure white, healing antiseptic balm, put up in beautiful nickel capped glass jars at 50c. Each soothing agent as Oil Eucalyptus, Thymol, Menthol, etc., are incorporated into a twenty-cent jar of Catarrh Cure. Imported by Dr. Shoop from Europe. Catarrh of the nose and throat has extended to the stomach, then by all means also use internally, Dr. Shoop's Restorative. Stomach distress, a lack of general strength, bloating, belching, biliousness, bad taste, etc., surely call for Dr. Shoop's Restorative. For uncomplicated catarrh only of the nose and throat nothing else, however, need be used but

SENATOR SPOONER'S SPEECH.

The dinner of the Chamber of Commerce at the Waldorf-Astoria, New York, last night, was enlivened by a speech by former Senator Spooner, of Wisconsin, who, without mentioning him by name, pitched into President Roosevelt in strong fashion. Senator Spooner said that the constitution had been all right for the country in times of war and peace up to the last few years. He praised the bankers and business men of the city, saying they had done more for the financial troubles than Congress could have done. There was altogether too much general criticism of business men, he said, and corporations were here to stay, the country under the present conditions not being able to get on without them.

Whatever references to the financial situation were made were in a hopeful tone, starting from President Simmons, who said a few words before he announced the first toast. "The President of the United States," Mr. Cortelvon was to have answered to this, but as he was not there, no one answered to it and the toast was drunk almost in silence.

Among other things, Senator Spooner in his speech said:

"I think the people of the United States ought to think a long time before they allow the commerce of the United States to be put in a straitjacket, to be tightened or loosened as some one at Washington may think best. (Applauds.) Let us keep the channels of commerce free, allowing no one, corporations by contract, in unreasonable restraint of trade, or any power to obstruct the free transit of products and commodities from State to State, not only innocent in their nature, but necessary to the people. Frederick the Great said, and it was a great saying: 'If I wish to punish a province I would have it governed by philosophers.'"

"War on corporations is unreasoning, in many instances hateful, because corporations have contributed their share to the situation in which this country finds itself. Corporations are an essential to the commerce of this day, and always will be, as money."

"Who stemmed the tide of distrust and suspicion that seemed to overwhelm the business and people of this country? It was not the federal government. It helped all it could. It was the strong, patriotic, resourceful bankers and financiers of this great city, led by the unswerving king of them all, J. P. Morgan, who accomplished more in the way of correcting bad methods, of holding men to the faith involved in trustship, than a Congress could do in a dozen years."

LINGERING COLD.

Withstood Other Treatment But Quickly Cured by Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

"Last winter I caught a very severe cold which lingered for weeks," says J. Urquhart, of Zephyr, Ontario. "My cough was very dry and harsh. The local dealer recommended Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and guaranteed it, so I gave it a trial. One small bottle of it cured me. I believe Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to be the best I have ever used." This remedy is for sale by Gibson & Tinsman and W. F. Creighton & Co.

A Criminal Attack

on an inoffensive citizen is frequently made in that apparently useless little tub called the "appendix." It is generally the result of protracted constipation, following liver torpor. Dr. King's New Life Pills regulate the liver, prevent appendicitis, and establish regular habits of the bowels. 25c at all drug stores.

BARBER ROBBED.

The Baltimore police are making a thorough search for two men, who, in a clever manner, flimflammed Julius Greenberg, who conducts a barber shop on east Fayette street, of $2,000 in gold coin. The two men told Greenberg that they had a plan whereby he could make from 30 to 50 per cent. on his money, and that it was an easy matter. When Greenberg finally investigated his investment he found that he had secured about 40 pounds of iron washers for his $2,000.

Sunday last Greenberg went to detective headquarters and said that a man came to him and told him that he had a preparation whereby he could make old gold look like new, and make brass appear to be gold. Greenberg said he finally consented to invest in the scheme because the man told him what great profits could be realized. Accordingly Greenberg, on November 8, met two men, and together they went to a room on Jackson street. Greenberg said the men told him to Tell Them You Know!

You may tell your friends, on our "say so," that when they buy a package of the genuine Arbuckles' Ariosa Coffee they get the best of the coffee trade.

No coffee of equal quality can be sold in this town for the same price, whether it be sold out of a bag or a bin, or under some romantic trade-mark. You may tell them you know and that Arbuckle Brothers, the greatest coffee dealers in the world, will stand for it.

put his gold coins in a car, which he showed him. This Greenberg said he did. The men started to mix a preparation, and then sent Greenberg downstairs to get some hot water. While he was getting the water the men switched his coins. When he returned with the water a plaster of paris paste was mixed and another sheet-iron arrangement cemented shut. The men placed a cross-mark on the top, and told Greenberg to take it home and keep it for 11 days. Sunday Greenberg grew suspicious and brought the cemented package to a rad-quarter. The police after hard work removed the plaster of paris cover. When the arrangement was broken open about 40 pounds of iron washers rolled out.

Ely's Cream Balm has been tried and not found wanting in thousands of homes all over the country. It has won a place in the family medicine chest among the reliable household remedies, where it is kept at hand for use in treating cold in the head just as soon as some member of the household begins the preliminary sneezing or snuffling. It gives immediate relief and a day or two's treatment will put a stop to a cold which might, if not checked, become chronic and run into a bad case of catarrh.
